Honourable

Dr Angelo Farrugia LL.D. M.Jur.

Speaker of the House of Representatives

Parliament of Malta

Brussels, 20 April 2018

Dear Speaker,

As you know, on 30th November and 1st December 2017, a European Parliament ad hoc Delegation was sent to Malta. A mission report was produced and contains a series of key findings and proposes follow up actions in order to analyse further information, based on the meetings held during the mission, as well as on documents and other elements received afterwards.

In the meantime, on January 25th, the report had a first consideration in the LIBE Committee at the European Parliament: most Members who took the floor considered that the exchange of views with the government of Malta and other Maltese stakeholders should continue in order to clarify several aspects, which remain contested. On the 2nd of February, the government of Malta also provided their formal reaction to the report.

Given the recent developments in Malta, and our wish to continue the engagement with Maltese authorities and institutions, I would like to express our interest in addressing the Parliament of Malta in Valetta, and provide an opportunity to discuss the findings and recommendations of the report with Members of the House of Representatives, at a date to be set up by mutual convenience.

Best regards,
Ana Gomes

Ana Gomes
